How can we help as parents and carers...

A positive work environment

Reflects your head space and your feelings (neat and tidy)

Quiet space – music does not aid memory; unless you are creating song mnemonics

Try to avoid working on your bed – a desk or clear workspace

Notice board can be helpful for organisation and revision tips

As hard as it may be, try to detach yourself from your mobile phone. Leave it in another room – set the timer on it for the duration of your revision session.
